

ASPIRATION FUND ADVISER, LLC INVESTMENT
ADVISORY CLIENT AGREEMENT

This Investment Advisory Client Agreement (“Agreement”) is entered into by and between Aspiration Fund Adviser, LLC and the party (“Client”) set forth in the fee addendum.

In consideration of the mutual promises, covenants, and undertakings set forth herein, the parties hereby agree as follows:

1. Appointment of Investment Adviser and Establishment of Account to Facilitate Investment in the Fund(s). Client appoints Adviser to provide investment advice and authorizes Adviser to establish Client’s advisory account (the “Account”) in connection with Client’s decision to invest in shares of one or more investment companies that are available for purchase only through the Account and which Client has indicated that he or she wants to invest (“Funds”). The investment advice to Client shall be solely as to the advisability of investing in Fund shares, shall be provided on a non-discretionary basis and shall not take the form of specific recommendations to buy, sell or hold certain amounts of shares of the Fund(s) at certain points in time. Adviser shall provide advice only with respect to assets in Client’s Account, including additions, substitutions and proceeds, and shall have no responsibility for the actions or non-actions of predecessor investment advisers or the management of any assets other than the assets allocated to the Account. Adviser shall have no duty to provide ongoing monitoring of Client’s investments, to provide Client with a complete investment program or to diversify or otherwise to allocate Client’s Account among different investments other than shares of the Fund(s) in which the Client has determined to invest.

Client’s Funds are listed in the “Fee Addendum,” which may be amended as set forth in Section 21 of this Agreement. Client understands and acknowledges that Adviser serves as the investment adviser to one or more of the Funds.

2. Acceptance of Appointment. Adviser accepts its appointment as investment adviser for the Account and to provide non-personalized, limited scope investment advice as set forth in Section 1 herein. As a condition of its acceptance of appointment, Adviser shall be entitled to rely on such financial and other information relating to investment of Account assets as it may receive from time to time from Client.

3. Investment Authorization. Client appoints Adviser as agent and attorney-in-fact to effect investments on behalf of the Account. Adviser shall carry out such investing only upon written instructions received from Client. Pursuant to such instructions, Adviser shall direct the purchase, sale, exchange, conversion or other acquisition or disposition of shares of the Fund(s), as well as arrange for delivery and payment, and act on behalf of Client in all other matters incidental to the handling of Account investments as directed by Client. Client grants Adviser full authorization to issue such instructions, and engage in such transactions, as may be appropriate in connection with the management of the Account, including by instructing Adviser’s affiliated broker-dealer to execute transactions and/or place trade orders on behalf of client.

4. Reports. Reports as to investment performance of the Fund(s) held in the Account shall be provided by the Fund(s) in which the Account assets are invested. Clients invested in the Fund(s) receive prospectuses, supplements, annual reports, semi-annual reports and other periodic statements from the Fund. By signing this Agreement, Client consents to receive all such information electronically and acknowledges that Client may incur costs for Internet access to such information and for maintaining an email account. Client further certifies that Client has a current email account and agrees to notify Adviser immediately if Client's email account changes.

5. Non-Advisory Services. In addition to the investment advice provided under this Agreement, Adviser shall provide non-advisory, administrative services in support of Client's Account, such as placing orders for the purchase and sale of Fund shares, as well as providing a software interface and technical support; access to statements, trade confirmations and tax forms online; information and reports issued by the Fund(s); education; customer service; and facilitation of charitable giving through Aspiration Foundation, an affiliated 501(c)(3) organization.

6. Fees. Adviser does not impose a set advisory fee. Instead, Client can pay Adviser a fee (the "Advisory Fee") in the amount Client believes is fair. Client has determined to pay Adviser an Advisory Fee at the rate ("Advisory Fee Rate") set forth on the Fee Addendum attached hereto. The Advisory Fee, if any, is paid quarterly in arrears and is calculated by multiplying the Advisory Fee Rate by the average market value of all assets in the Account that are invested in the Fund(s) as of the last business day of each quarter, based on each Fund's net asset value determined in accordance with the applicable Fund's procedures. Client may increase or decrease (including to 0.00%) the Advisory Fee Rate at any time upon written notice to Adviser, such notice to be provided pursuant to Section 18 of this Agreement. If Client does so, the adjusted Advisory Fee Rate (if any) in effect at 12:00 PM Eastern Time on the last business day of the quarter is effective retroactively from the first business day of the quarter and is used to calculate the Advisory Fee for the quarter. Client is under no obligation to pay the Advisory Fee, as Client can reduce the Advisory Fee to 0.00% until 12:00 PM Eastern Time on the last business day of the quarter. Aspiration will not be entitled to, and will cease to collect advisory fees, once Client no longer owns Fund shares.

7. Minimum Account Balance. Adviser requires client accounts to maintain a minimum fund balance of $100. Please refer to the Fund(s) prospectus for information related to investment minimums. Client acknowledges that Adviser has the right to involuntarily redeem the remaining shares in and close Client's account after 30 days' notice if Client's balance does not remain at the minimum requirement.

8. Custody of Account Assets. Adviser will not take custody or control of Account assets at any time or under any circumstances and will have no authority to take or have possession of any assets in the Account. Client assets are held by each investment company's transfer agent, and the investment companies' assets are held by its custodial bank.

9. Non-Exclusive Agreement. Client understands that the Adviser is authorized to perform, among other things, research and advisory services for other clients.

10. Confidential Relationship and Marketing. All information and advice furnished by Client or Adviser to the other, with respect to the Account, or other matters pertaining to this Agreement, shall be treated as confidential and shall not be disclosed to third parties except as otherwise required by law or as necessary to carry out the responsibilities set forth in this Agreement. Client acknowledges that it has received and read Adviser's Privacy Policy, which is available at www.aspiration.com/privacy-policy/.

11. Proxies and Certain Legal Notices. Client retains the right and obligation to vote any and all proxies relating to the shares of the Fund(s) and Adviser shall be under no obligation to vote proxies on behalf of Client. Adviser may, but is not required to, take any action or render any advice with respect to securities presently or formerly held in the Account, or the issuers thereof, which become the subject of any legal proceedings, including bankruptcies.

12. Standard of Care. Adviser shall perform its duties hereunder with the care, skill, prudence and diligence under the circumstances then prevailing that a prudent person acting in a like capacity and familiar with such matters would use in the conduct of an enterprise of a like character and with like aims (the "Prudent Person Standard"). It is agreed that the Prudent Person Standard set forth in the foregoing sentence constitutes the sole standard of care imposed upon Adviser by this Agreement.

Client understands that an investment in a Fund is subject to various market, currency, economic, political and business risks, and that those investment decisions will not always be profitable. Further, Client acknowledges and agrees that the value of an investment in a Fund may go up as well as down and could suffer substantial losses, that past performance of the Fund does not indicate its future performance, and that Adviser will not be liable for its failure to achieve any investment performance targets or goals articulated by Client or otherwise. Client acknowledges and agrees that Adviser does not guarantee the performance of any Fund and that the Account is not insured against loss of principal or income

13. Limitation of Liability. Client agrees that Adviser shall not be liable for (i) any loss suffered by reason of any investment decision, recommendation, or other action taken or omitted in good faith and in accordance with the Prudent Person Standard described above; (ii) any loss arising from Adviser's adherence to Client's instructions; or (iii) any act or failure to act by the Custodian, by any broker or dealer or transfer agent to which Adviser directs transactions for the Account, or by any other third party.

Securities laws impose liabilities under certain circumstances on investment advisers and other regulated persons even when they act in good faith, and therefore nothing in this Agreement shall in any way constitute a waiver or limitation of any rights which Client may have under federal or state securities laws.

14. Client Representations. Client represents and warrants that: (i) he or she is duly authorized to negotiate the terms of this Agreement, including fees, and to enter into (or renew) and perform this Agreement, and has full power and authority to enter into this Agreement and to commit the assets to Adviser's management and supervision; (ii) his or her execution of this Agreement and the performance of his or obligations does not conflict with or violate any obligations by which Client is bound; (iii) it is the owner of the bank account used to fund its investment; (iv) it is the owner of the bank account from which the Advisory Fee (if any) is transferred; (v) the signatory on behalf of Client is duly authorized by appropriate action to execute this Agreement; (vi) Client understands that the advisory services provided under this Agreement are limited in scope, do not constitute a complete investment program and do not provide a diversified portfolio of investments; (vii) Adviser has no duty to provide ongoing monitoring of Client's investments; and (viii) Client has entered into this Agreement to invest in the Fund(s). Client undertakes to advise Adviser of any event that might affect the validity of any of the above representations.

15. Acknowledgments. Client acknowledges electronic receipt of Adviser's firm brochure (Form ADV, Part 2A), brochure supplements (Form ADV, Part 2B) and Adviser's privacy notice prior to, or at the time of, entering into this Agreement.

Client further acknowledges that the investment advice provided under this agreement is not personalized and therefore is not designed to meet the objectives or needs of Client. In addition, Client acknowledges that Adviser does not provide ongoing monitoring of the Account.

Client acknowledges that the advisory services provided under this Agreement do not form a complete investment program. Account investments shall be limited to one or more Fund(s) selected by Client. As such, Client acknowledges that Account investments could be subject to greater risk of loss and could be more volatile than a portfolio of investments that is more diversified across a greater number of assets, securities or sectors. Although diversification does not ensure a profit or protect against a loss, Client is encouraged to diversify its investments across a variety of industries, company sizes and geographic areas.

16. Force Majeure. If war, natural disasters, acts of terrorism, loss of utilities, government restrictions, trading halts, exchange or market rulings, extraordinary market volatility or exchange conditions, or any other conditions beyond Adviser's control temporarily make it impossible for Adviser to fully perform its duties under this Agreement, then the principles of force majeure will apply and the rights and obligations of the parties will be temporarily suspended during the force majeure period, to the extent performance is reasonably affected thereby.

17. Waiver of Jury Trial. The parties agree to waive any right to have a jury participate in the resolution of the dispute or claim, whether sounding in contract, tort or otherwise, between any of the parties or any of their respective affiliates arising out of, connected with, related to or incidental to this Agreement. Instead, the parties agree that any dispute or claim to be resolved in court will be resolved in a bench trial without a jury. Notwithstanding anything herein to the contrary, either party may proceed to a court of competent jurisdiction to obtain injunctive relief at any time.

18. Notices. All communication to Client pursuant to this Agreement shall be sent to the email address set forth during account opening by Client unless Client designates otherwise in writing. Such communications shall be deemed given when delivered by electronic transmittal and shall be effective immediately upon the date acknowledged by return receipt. Notice may be given to Adviser by visiting www.aspiration.com and logging in to your account. Notice regarding fees is given to Adviser by making changes to the Account Dashboard. Notice regarding other account details, such as bank instructions and address, is given by making changes to the Settings page. Notice is considered received by Adviser at the time changes are made on www.aspiration.com.

19. Assignment. This Agreement is not assignable by Adviser without the prior consent of Client, if and to the extent that such consent is required under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940, as amended, and Securities and Exchange Commission guidance thereunder (the “Advisers Act”). Adviser will provide Client at least thirty (30) days prior written notice of any assignment, and Client’s consent will be presumed unless Client notifies Adviser otherwise in writing prior to the date of the assignment indicated on the notice. “Assignment” will have the same definition as in Advisers Act.

20. Termination and Survival. This Agreement may be terminated with or without cause upon not less than thirty (30) days written notice by either party to the other (unless the parties mutually agree to any shorter period of notice). Such termination will not, however, affect the liabilities or obligations of the parties under this Agreement arising from transactions initiated prior to such termination. Upon termination of this Agreement, Adviser is under no obligation to recommend any action with regard to the securities or other investments held in the Account. The following provisions shall survive the termination of this Agreement: Sections 6, 10, 11, 13, 16, 17 and 22.

21. Entire Agreement and Amendments. This Agreement represents the entire agreement between the parties with respect to the subject matter hereof. Except as expressly addressed elsewhere, the terms of this Agreement may be amended from time to time only by mutual written agreement of the parties to this Agreement, which may be effected electronically; provided, however, that Client may adjust the Advisory Fee set forth on the Fee Addendum to this Agreement in his or her sole discretion, and, provided, however, that the provisions of this Agreement regarding Payment Options set forth in the Fee Addendum to this Agreement may be electronically amended from time to time through Client changing Client’s account settings on Adviser’s website, as described in Section 18 of this Agreement.

22. Governing Law and Severability. This Agreement will be governed and interpreted by the laws of the State of California without reference to the conflict of laws rules, except as superseded or pre-empted by applicable Federal law. If any provision of this Agreement is declared or found to be illegal, unenforceable or void, then both parties shall be relieved of all obligations arising under such provision, but only to the extent that such provision is illegal, unenforceable or void, it being the intent and agreement of the parties that this Agreement shall be deemed amended by modifying such provision to the extent necessary to make it legal and enforceable while preserving its intent or, if that is not possible, by substituting another provision that is legal and enforceable and achieves the same objective.

23. Waiver and Counterparts. The waiver by either party of a breach of any provision or condition of this Agreement shall not operate, or be construed, as a waiver of any other breach or an assent to a failure to comply with a condition or provision. This Agreement may be executed in several counterparts, each of which shall be an original, but all of which shall constitute one and same instrument.

24. No Third-Party Beneficiaries. Neither party intends for this Agreement to benefit any third party not expressly named in this Agreement.
